

Laurie Brlas elected to Albemarle Corporation board of directors

June 26, 2017

CHARLOTTE, N.C., June 26, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Albemarle Corporation (NYSE: ALB), a leader in the global specialty chemicals industry, announced today that its board of directors has elected Laurie Brlas to the board, effective June 23, 2017. Brlas will also serve as a member of the board's Audit & Finance Committee and Nominating & Governance Committee.

"Laurie brings extensive operations, strategy and financial experience to our strong board of directors," said Luke Kissam, Albemarle chairman, president and CEO. "We are excited to have Laurie join our team. She has over 20 years of experience as a leader in various industries including natural resources, which will serve Albemarle and our shareholders well."

"I am very pleased to welcome Laurie to the Albemarle board of directors," added Jim Nokes, Albemarle's lead independent director. "In addition to her industry experience, her financial background and prior experience as a director complement the diverse skills of our board and make her an excellent addition to the committees on which she will serve."

Brlas is the former executive vice president and chief financial officer of Newmont Mining Corporation, a position she held from September 2013, until October 2016. She previously served in various leadership roles at Cliffs Natural Resources, Inc., an iron ore producer, from 2006 to 2013, including executive vice president and president of Global Operations. Prior to Cliffs, Brlas served as senior vice president and chief financial officer of STERIS Corporation. She currently serves on the board of directors of Perrigo Company and Calpine. Brlas received her bachelor's degree in Accounting from Youngstown State University in Ohio.
