

Albemarle Announces Leadership Changes for Corporate Strategy and Investor Relations and Treasury

July 25, 2018

CHARLOTTE, N.C., July 25, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Albemarle Corporation (NYSE: ALB), a leader in the global specialty chemicals industry, announced today new leadership appointments to its Corporate Strategy and Investor Relations department and Treasury department, effective August 1, 2018.

Dave Ryan becomes Vice President, Corporate Strategy and Investor Relations. Ryan joined Albemarle in 2016 as Vice President and Treasurer. Prior to joining Albemarle, he worked for WestRock Company where he was responsible for leading the spin-off of their Specialty Chemicals Division into a stand-alone, publicly traded company. He has also served in a wide range of strategic finance and strategy roles.

Amy Dunbar becomes Vice President and Treasurer. Dunbar joined Albemarle in 2016 as Assistant Treasurer. Prior to that role, she held treasury positions at Affinia Group, Ingersoll Rand and Kodak. Dunbar's career spans treasury strategy, management and operations.

"As Albemarle continues looking to the future and delivering against our growth strategy, we are poised for success in key areas of our business with these newly appointed leaders," said Luke Kissam, Albemarle Chairman, President and CEO. "Dave's financial and strategic experience will serve him well to lead our Corporate Strategy and Investor Relations department, and Amy's integral role in our banking strategy makes her an excellent choice for Treasurer."
