Supplier/Partner Letter

Dear [Supplier/Partner]:

I am pleased to inform you that Albemarle recently announced it has agreed to acquire Rockwood Holdings, a leading global developer, manufacturer and marketer of specialty chemicals. You can view our press release here.

This combination represents a tremendous growth opportunity for Albemarle, and we believe it presents a compelling opportunity for all of our stakeholders. By joining forces with Rockwood, we will create a top-tier specialty chemicals company with leading positions in four key growth businesses – lithium, catalysts, bromine and surface treatment. In addition, the transaction will accelerate Albemarle’s growth, enhancing our customer reach and diversity across end markets, geographies and technologies.

We firmly believe that Rockwood represents the ideal partner for Albemarle. In addition to its leading product set, Rockwood shares our focus on innovation, superior customer service and high standards for performance and execution. This shared approach will enable the combined company to deliver a broader range of customized, performance-based chemical solutions to better serve our customers.

Importantly, this is just the first step in the process. The transaction is subject to regulatory and shareholder approvals and other customary closing conditions, and is expected to close in the first quarter of 2015. In the meantime, Albemarle and Rockwood will continue to operate as separate companies, and you should expect “business as usual”.

If you have any questions about this announcement, please don’t hesitate to contact your Albemarle representative. As always, thank you for your ongoing support.

Regards,
